The Federation of Euro-Asian Stock Exchanges holds “Capital Market Talks” event in Cairo, Egypt

Cairo, 2022: Today, the Federation of Euro-Asian Stock Exchanges (FEAS) holds the second “Capital Market Talks” event for FEAS Members in Cairo, Egypt, hosted by the Egyptian Exchange.

Continuing its mission to promote collaboration of the capital markets of the Eurasian region, the Federation of Euro-Asian Stock Exchanges is delighted to host the annual Capital Market Talks event, this time in Cairo, Egypt.

"Capital Market Talks" is a closed event, with a special agenda of discussion. With the new initiative, FEAS would like to design in-person gathering alternatives to big conferences in a new world and give the floor to all participants for speaking. The places are limited and are based only on invitations.

Around 40 participants from FEAS Member institutions participated in the event. Dr. Konstantin Saroyan moderated the roundtable discussions where all participants shared their opinions about the topics.

During the one-day event participants discussed three main topics:

1. Exchange Related Topics
2. CSD Related Topics
3. Technology

Mr. Ramy El-Dokany, EGX Chairman, expressed his pleasure to host the General Assembly meetings. He also appreciated the efforts of the federation's secretariat and the acting director, Mrs. Alina Aldambergen.

Al-Dokany added that the “Capital Markets Talks” on the second day of the annual meetings strengthen the cooperation between members on addition, meeting in one place with members and influential parties in the securities industry in Europe and Asia is a great chance for discussing opportunities and challenges, reviewing and sharing different experiences which aims at developing the industry.

Dr. Konstantin Saroyan, FEAS Secretary General said: “For the second consecutive year, we are organizing a Capital Market Talks event, a new format of discussions, highly recognized by our community.

I would like to thank all our members who have contributed to the event's success. I hope that today's participants enjoyed this meeting: thanks to everyone for participating in fruitful discussions. I would also like to thank our beloved member the Egyptian Exchange for hosting us. The “Capital Market Talks” event is aimed to gather industry leaders under one roof, to discuss the capital market trends, events, threats and opportunities.

We hope to see you all again together with the FEAS community gathering next year, during our annual events.”
